

Short dissemination plan – ATHENA3diss

version 2 with time table

Institute for Gender Studies (IGS)
Radboud University Nijmegen

Book on sectionalities

- On the recommended readings or, if possible, on the compulsory readings of several IGS courses such as Gender and Ethnicity in Upbringing and Education (BA1); Politics, Power and Gender (BA2); Gender Theories and Equality Policies (BA2); Gender Theory II (MA). (Academic year 2009 – 2010)
- Sending book flyer to all women's studies / gender studies documentation centers and libraries in The Netherlands. (Fall 2009)
- Ad and review of book in Raffia, IGS journal on gender, emancipation and feminism. (can be in any issue as soon as I have the book and info: no.3 (Oct. 2009) or no. 4 (Dec. 2009) or no. 1 (March 2010) etc.)
- Flyer and book in documentation centre IGS. (as soon as it is available)

Expert database:

- Including all staff members of IGS (approx. 20). (start made in July 2009; all in the database by the end of August 2009)

Both:

- on website IGS (as soon as info is available)
- Announcement in Annual report 2009. (Will appear in July 2010)
- Announcement on network websites such as LinkedIn (page of Dutch Association of Women's Studies), Facebook, and Hyves. (as soon as info is available)
- Announcement in email group IGS. (as soon as info is available)

Workshop alumni gender studies

Organizing a third workshop (Fall 2009) for alumni as follow up on the workshops: (1) Working with women's studies (2007) and (2) Putting Women's Studies into Practice (2008) (in cooperation with the Dutch Association of Women's Studies)

The first two workshops will be part of the results of ATHENA 3. Short reports in Dutch available, which can be put on the ATHENA3b website. (I will send them to you a.s.a.p.)